

HEAD WRAP INSTRUCTIONS

Tie Wrap - BACK

Step 1.

Gather material and bring from back of head
(right end shorter)

Step 2.

Gross ends in front, hold shorter end and cross longer around to left side of head and tie once

Step 3.

Tie again to form a knot. Pull material of knot to form a decorative flower

Tie Wrap - FRONT

Step 1.

Gather material at front of head with contrasting thread showing (right end shorter)

Step 2.

Pull material to back of head,
criss-cross and bring to front

Step 3.

Cross material at right front side of head, tie
once then again to form a knot

Step 4.

Tuck loose material or let hang for contrasting effect

Full Wrap-FRONT

Step 1.

Both ends of material even,
bring wrap over front of head

Step 2.

Gather material in back and
criss-cross ends

Step 3.

Twist material, bring to front (or Side) of head while continue twisting, tuck material as needed to give a neat effect

Step 4.

Tie to form a knot or continue to tuck and allow ends to hang for a different effect

HEAD WRAP INSTRUCTIONS

Band Tie Wrap - FRONT

Step 1.

Allow contrasting threads of material to show,
fold material in half

Step 2.

Fold top quarter of material (folded end)
one quarter each

Step 3.

With contrasting threads faced downward toward eyes, bring material around to back of head and tie

Step 4.

Knot material and let hang

*For different effect, repeat steps above and cross material at either side of head.

Knot and let ends hang

Two -Tone Wrap

Step 1.

Fold material for dominant color to remain on outside of wrap

Step 2.

Gather material and bring from back of head

Step 3.

Twist material allowing contrasting color to show

Step 4.

Bring to front /side of head, tie a knot

Note: A word of caution — use discretion when tying Klassic Wrap (for comfort)

Never pull material tightly, as comfort is as important as beauty in appearance.

Practice tying your Klassic Wrap in front of a mirror —
Remember: the uniqueness of the product is the individuality of each wrap in creation.